COUNTY NEWS.

Fair View.

The writer is indeed glad to be able to send a few humble notes from Fair View this week, with the hope that they will afford some little pleasure to the many readers of the Falcon.

Mrs. Eugene Jenkins and little daughter, Dorris, visited relatives in Collierville last Tuesday.

Mrs. J. B. Murphy and niece, Miss Earline Burnette of Williston, were pleasant guests of relatives and friends here last week.

Farmer Hustle most always comes out ahead of Farmer Brag in everything except talk.

Mrs. Olivia Shelton of Forest Hill, Tenn., is spending several weeks here with relatives.

Miss Agnes Hewlett, one of the most attractive members of the younger set was the charming hostess at an informal social entertainment given last Thursday evening in her home in compliment to Miss Earline Burnette of Williston.

Mrs. Walter Carter has returned to her home in Memphis after spending a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. Ed Alexander.

Messrs Hercheal and Willie Hewlett and Frank Dunn made a business trip to Somerville Saturday.

Mrs. C. S. Butler and Mrs. Lizzie Johnson spent Saturday with their niece, Mrs. Wm. Wade at Hayes, Tennessee.

Ernest Blain of New Bethel passed through our vicinity Sunday enroute to a "foot washing" at Pugh.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hewlett and children spent Sunday in the "Bluff City", going through in their car.

Good health is more essential to anyone's happiness than great riches or elaborate trousseau.

Several young people from here attended children services at Kirks Sunday night.

Moscow.

A dreary place this would be, were there no lovely flowers. To smile upon us day by day. And cheer our weary hours.

With loose stock roaming over the town the sidewalks cannot be kept clean. And it is time that the weeds were cut and every place of filth done away with.

J. A. Pearce and Miss Virgilia Lucas of Somerville were recent callers here.

It will not seem hard in heaven to have followed the step of your Guide.

Mrs. J. L. Crosssett and children are home from a visit among relatives at Lambert.

Can a man find a cap for his knee, or a key for a lock of his hair? In the crown of his head what gems are set; who travels the bridge of his nose? Can the crook in his elbow be sent to jail? Can he use for shingling the roof of his mouth the nail from the end of his toes? Where can be sharpened his shoulder blades?

Mayor J. M. Stevenson now has one of the handsomest store buildings in this part of the state, he having recently added to the building a concrete floor and improved same in other ways. The place will be occupied by a drug

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Bryant have installed a handsome piano in their already attractive and comfortable home.

A majority of our people desire a clean sanitary town. It is up to the board of aldermen to follow Mayor Stevenson who believes in keeping the town in a decent state in these ways. A look in and about the Mayor's premises will speak for itself.

Go to the polls Saturday and help elect able good men to office; men who will realize that they are servants of the people and so act, men who will accord to the commonest, a square deal.

The Quinine That Does Not Affect The Head Because of its tonic and laxative effect, LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE is better than ordinary Quinine and does not cause nervousness nor ringing in head. Remember the full name and look for the signature of R. W. GROVE, 25c.

Mrs. Janie Pulliam.

After an illness of many months, Mrs. Janie Pulliam on Wednesday afternoon, June 21, passed peacefully to her final rest; with her husband, J. N. Pulliam, her daughter, Miss Carey, and son, James C., and her father, Dr. C. W. Robertson, and several lifelong friends about her.

Deceased was born in Somerville and has lived her entire life here. She was a daughter of the late John Thomas and Mrs. Carey Thomas, who, after the death of Mr. Thomas, married Dr. C. W. Robertson. Deceased married James N. Pulliam, who, with two children, Miss Carey and James C., survive her. She was a communicant of St. Thomas Episcopal church in this city and has for a number of years served the church as organist, and has otherwise been an active and useful member. In her personal and social life Mrs. Pulliam was one of this city's most lovable women, of a gentle disposition that never intruded upon the rights or imposed upon the feelings of associates, respecting their wishes and their welfare, she was a friend of all. In her family circle she was the center and pride of one of the city's sweetest homes, and there was no tie sweeter than that of deceased and her only daughter who was her most constant and devoted companion. These loved ones who are left have a deep sympathy from the community, which sustains, in her death, a blow, as well as does her loved ones.

The funeral services will be conducted this afternoon (Thursday) in this city by Rev. Grant Knauff and interment in the Somerville cemetery will follow the services.

Luncheon.

The Ladies of the Aid Society of the Presbyterian church were invited to an afternoon luncheon at the residence of Mrs. John Shaw's on Friday afternoon June 16th. The Captain of the red company, Mrs. Ora Burton, having issued cards to the captain of the blue company, Mrs. Harper, and entertained them in a most gracious manner.

The reception committee, Mrs. John Shaw, Mrs. Ora Burton, Mrs. Sessums and Mrs. Barkdull, received the guests in a most cordial manner. They were given a musical contest where Mrs. Barkdull, gifted with musical talent, responded to Mrs. Ora Burton's questions. A comic contest was also much enjoyed, on the lawn, pinning the buttons on the Dutchman's coat, Mrs. Cleveland Reams being the lucky one, and Mrs. Sessums winning the musical contest prize.

The decorations were beautiful, the color scheme of red being carried out. Elegant refreshments were served by Mesdames Perrin, Claxton, Morris, Misses Mary and Shawline Barkdull. The tables were lighted with red candles and massed with red cut flowers and foliage.

All spent a most enjoyable afternoon. The Captain of the blue thanked the members of the red for their lovely reception and bade them God speed in their next church work.

Mr. George Morris.

Mr. George Morris, who has been for two years associate editor of the Banner, has resigned his place to accept a position in Washington, and left for that city last night.

Mr. Morris is an exceptionally bright young man, of fine character and agreeable manners. He came to the Banner from the Memphis Commercial Appeal, where he had built a reputation as a newspaper man of more than ordinary capacity—a reputation he well sustained on the Banner.

In his work on this paper he wrote daily some of the longer editorial articles and practically all of the editorial paragraphs.

Mr. Morris is specially endowed with the happy faculty of making friends, and has many acquaintances in Tennessee who wish him the best of fortune wherever his lot may be cast.

The Banner regrets that circumstances have deprived it of so valuable a member of its staff.

George Morris is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morris of Laconia and a brother of Dr. John Morris of this city. He was reared at Laconia and has many relatives and friends in this section who will feel glad for his promotion. He goes to Washington as the private secretary to U. S. Senator John K. Shields.

Methodist Ladies.

Some time ago each member of the Pastor's Aid Society of the Methodist church pledged themselves to earn a dollar for the new church.

Monday afternoon they met with Mrs. Hobson to turn in these dollars and give an account of their earning. Most of it was in rhyme and proved very entertaining. (We would give some of them if ye editor had not commanded us to be brief.)

From selling turnip salad to patching breeches were some of the "reasons" for the rhymes.

All the ladies of the church are invited to the next meeting at the home of Mrs. Wetzler. A new scheme is in the air which promises to be pleasant as well as profitable.

Come and help work for our new church.

Financing Pig Clubs.

The bankers in many States are realizing the value of pig-club work as a means of materially improving rural conditions, according to club agents of the department. Not a few of the bankers have made it possible for worthy club members to secure pigs on their personal notes. In this way a well-bred pig is secured and the member can pay for it from the proceeds of the pig as a meat animal or from the sale of off-

To the Democrats of Fayette County.

The primary to nominate a Democratic candidate for Attorney general has been called for June 24.

There are five counties in the circuit and owing to the brief time allowed to canvass the circuit I shall have but little time to devote to my own county.

However I do not wish the Democrats of this county to think that I am slighting them or that I would not be very grateful for their support.

I desire, and here solicit the vote of every Democrat in Fayette County. So far as I know there is no reason why I should not receive the vote of every man in the county. I was born and reared here and you know me personally or by reputation. You know whether or not I am qualified for attorney general and you know something of the qualifications of my opponents.

I would be proud indeed, yet withal humbly grateful, if I could receive every vote cast in Fayette County.

Respectfully,
Chas. A. Stainback. 6-24

How many times have you said, or your friends said: "I cannot, because I HAVE NOT GOT THE MONEY?" How many good business chances have had to be passed up because you did not have the money? "Get-Rich-Quick" speculation is the worst thing a man can do with his money. If the enterprise into which some smooth stranger asks you to put your money were such a good one he would keep it—not sell it to you.
